

THE STAR'S DAILY PICTORIAL PAGE

THE EVENING STAR, WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 22, 1922.

How Uncle Sam's great fighting ships are being scrapped. This photograph shows holes burned through the thirteen-inch guns of the battleship Missouri, making the weapons impossible for further use.

Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson (left), wife of the artist, and her sister, Lady Astor, photographed in the New York home of Mrs. Gibson. Lady Astor came to America to attend the Woman Voters' Conference. Copyright by Keystone View Co.

"Babe" Ruth's box in the grandstand at yesterday's game between Washington and New York, at Polo Grounds. Left to right: Mrs. Ruth, Mrs. Harry Aucherson, Ruth and Mrs. Mike McNally. International.

Representative Benjamin L. Fairchild of New York, and his bride, photographed yesterday afternoon in Washington. Mrs. Fairchild was Miss Elinor Parsons of Yonkers, N. Y. National photo.

Removing the high iron fence surrounding the National Botanic Garden. The fence has been a landmark, with the record dim as to when it was erected, and for more than twenty-five years efforts have been made to have it removed, final action being taken as the result of an agreement between George W. Hess, director of Botanic Garden, under sanction of the joint committee on the library, and Lieut. Col. Sherrill, in charge of public buildings and grounds. Photo by Pridgeon.

The oldest delegate to the Daughters of American Revolution Congress, in Washington, is Mrs. Rebecca Felton of Georgia. She is a guest of Senator and Mrs. Watson of Georgia. By 21st Century Press.

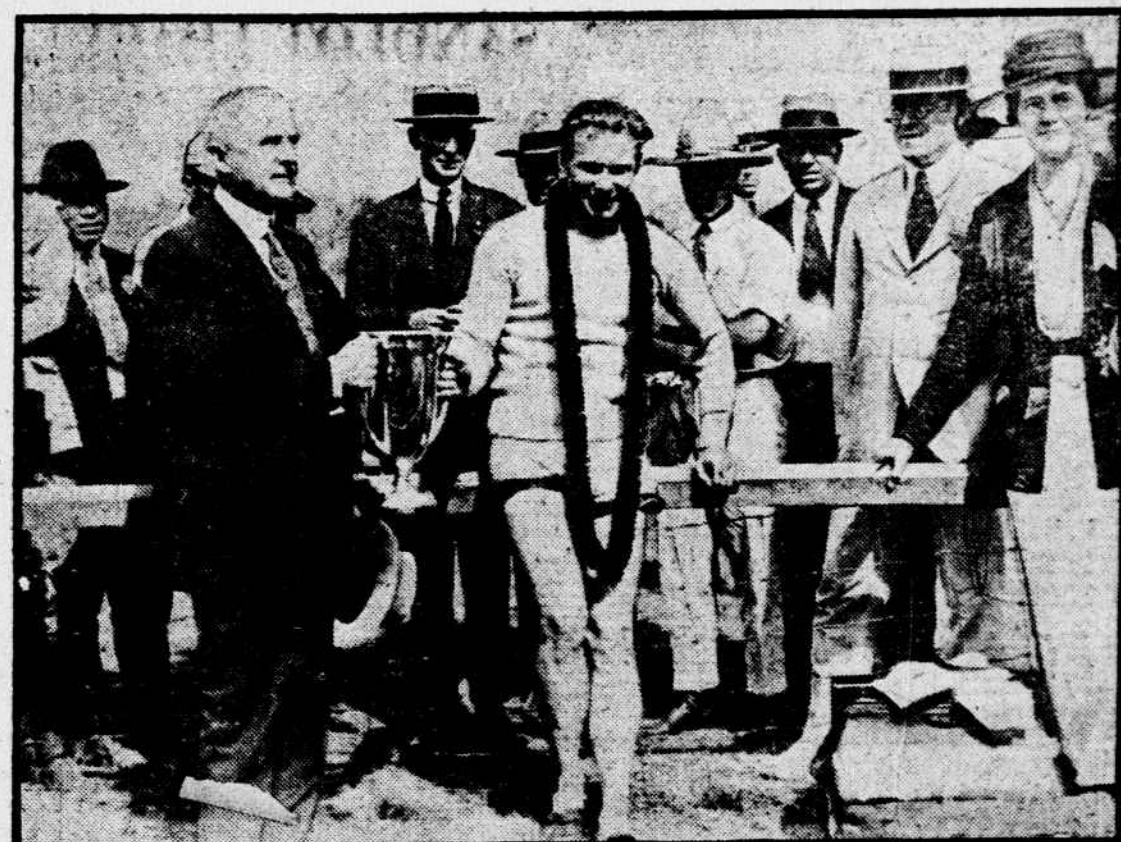

When Maxine Brown was married recently, President Harding said she was the handsomest bride he had ever seen. This is her latest photograph. International.

Exclusive portrait of the second son of the King and Queen of Spain, Prince Don Jaime. He is already beginning to take an active interest in the affairs of his country. Wide World Photo.

Eugene Meyer, Jr., managing director of the War Finance Corporation, who, according to reports from official circles, will succeed William P. G. Harding as governor of the Federal Reserve Board. Copyright by Keystone.

Charles Paddock receiving cup at Honolulu meet for breaking the world's record for 100 yards. He clipped off the distance in 9 3/5 seconds. He also holds records for 120 yards, 125 yards and 175 yards. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

Elmer Ray, entrant in the Y. M. C. A. games between the various playgrounds of Washington, although handicapped by having only one leg, qualified to represent the Rosedale playgrounds in the high jump. The photo shows him clearing the bar at a height of five feet. National photo.

In her latest photoplay, Shirley Mason wears this negligee of wild rose chamoisee, with "angel sleeves" of soft cream lace. This, in turn, is edged with narrow wild rose grosgrain ribbon.

Marshal Joffre placing a wreath on the tomb of America's unknown hero at Arlington National cemetery yesterday afternoon. National photo.